

PRECISION UNIFORM COVERAGE
Setting the standard in rotary spray systems

Consultex Lab Spray System provides you with the tool to design and engineer innovative concepts through product development.

In the global economy, time-to-market is key to gaining a competitive edge. Rapid testing provides valuable results and reduces time to market.

Whether new development or product enhancement, having the right testing equipment gives you the tool to quickly expand.

- Antimicrobials
- Hydrophobic
- Hydrophilic
- FR's
- PCM's
- Digital print primer
- UV protectors
- Anti-static
- Softeners

Lab Spray System

For over 50 years, US based Consultex has successfully supplied its innovative rotary spray technology, providing a no-contact chemical application system with precision control, uniform coating and superior coverage.

- Skid mounted with all components pre-wired and pre-piped. Portable execution available
- Integrated Controls panel with touchscreen.
- Working Width - 800 mm
- One or two sided spray configuration
- Same features as production models
- Unwind, Rewind and Drying systems available